LEGAL EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Partner – Humphrey & Petersen, P.C.; Tucson, AZ – January 2001 to present. Practice includes the representation of defendants in civil litigation, primarily in the areas of tort and insurance law, civil rights, licensed professional malpractice including attorney and health care malpractice, contract law and indemnification, and appellate litigation. Represented both insurers and insureds at trial in significant liability and bad faith cases. Represented clients in significant appellate court cases in both the state and federal courts, including the United States Supreme Court.

Authored several articles on legal issues, including an annotation on constitutional tort claims. Board Member of the Arizona Association of Defense Counsel (AADC) from 2003 to 2010. President of the AADC in 2009. Prior head of the Amicus Committee and primary brief writer for the AADC in cases pending before the Arizona Supreme Court.

Associate Attorney – Bury, Moeller, Humphrey & O'Meara; Tucson, AZ – December 1996 to December 2000. Practice focused on civil defense litigation, first and third party insurance coverage disputes, bad faith litigation, and civil rights defense.

Associate Attorney – Kimble, Gothreau & Nelson; Tucson, AZ – June 1995 to December 1996. Joined the firm as an associate while clerking prior to admission; worked primarily in civil rights defense and negligence actions brought against public entities and employees, general insurance defense and litigation.

Legal Clerk – Brough Law Firm; Chapel Hill, NC – August 1994 to May 1995. Position held during third year of law school; researched complex issues for practice engaged in land use and municipal law including Section 1983, regulatory permits, zoning and litigation.

Legal Clerk for the Honorable Paul W. Colarich, Presiding Judge, Navajo County Superior Court; Holbrook, AZ – June 1994 to August 1994. Researched and prepared legal memoranda and analyses on cases before the court and drafted local rules for the Navajo County Superior Court.
